Unveiling Our Legacy

On May 7th, Fontbonne Hall unveiled several works of art including both a portrait and a stained glass window of Mother St. John Fontbonne and a portrait of St. Francis de Sales one of the founders of the Visitation Sisters. These works of art are proudly displayed in the entrance and foyer of the main campus building.

In addition, Gilda Piccini King '68 and her husband Dennis were toasted and recognized by Fontbonne senior, Samantha Soued, for furnishing the new Kings Court that includes outside seating for members of the senior class.

Joining in the unveiling and celebration was S. Tesa Fitzgerald, President of the Sisters of St. Joseph and representation from the Leadership for the Sisters. Also, the Principal of Fontbonne Hall, Mr. Rocco Gentile, several members of the Board and some of Fontbonne's most generous supporters.

JV Lacrosse Team

Sports

The JV Lacrosse team lost against St Francis Prep team and the Varsity Lacrosse team lost against Mary Louis in the Semi-Finals. Varsity went into a sudden death double overtime before losing 7-8. We are so proud of our lacrosse teams for their effort and hard work this season.

Fontbonne will be hosting an Athletic Fair on May 15th from 4PM to 6PM in the gym for incoming students to meet the coaches and the teams.

Hygiene Kits

Madison Gonzalez, President of the Respect Club and SAC Respect Chairperson, and her sister, Morgan Gonzalez, Vice-President of the Respect Club, Vice-President of Scholars Society, and SAC DEI Chairperson, organized an initiative to send hygiene kits for women in a domestic violence shelter. JBFCS, the shelter for the women, was extremely grateful for the donations.

Magnify Flowers

Last week, the Magnify club planted flowers along the walkway of Fontbonne Hall Academy. Part of their mission is to magnify God's love and they did this through beautifying the campus.

Spring Musical

The Drama Club performed Freaky Friday the weekend of May 3rd. The students put on a wonderful show after working tirelessly to bring the production to life. Directed by Susan Huizinga and moderated by our own Ms. Klenner, the cast and crew showed an immense level of talent and professionalism.
